

The Herald of Grace

A Weekly Newsletter for Grace Lutheran Church

October 9, 2025

A Note from Pastor

“For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another” -Romans 12:4-5

Every fall there are stewardship letters sent to every member so that we can plan our 2026 ministry budget. But godly stewardship in the Christian life is much more than just money. We are all the body of Christ who contribute much in the local congregation. Yes, indeed, the tithes and offerings vary depending on household incomes and ages, but all of life is stewardship and every child of God contributes to the ministry. This is most certainly true in our worship! Stewards of all shapes and sizes, ages and abilities, affluence and influence are all assembled around Word and Sacrament with no one being more important than the other in contributing voices, prayer, and praise. I always said the most important thing you can do for Grace is to be in worship. It is your most generous witnessing tool to others including me but it's also for you.

Our human mind thinks right away that the person who writes the biggest check is the most important steward. Human logic, flawed by sin as it is, makes all sorts of judgmental claims. Certainly, stewards with more financial means are in a unique place to “carry the burden” in supporting the ministry of a local congregation. But that doesn't rule out the faithful stewardship of the unemployed, the single parent, the one suffering from a terminal illness, the recovering addict, the developmentally disabled teen, the family coming out of bankruptcy, the elderly widow and everyone in between.

The Lord has entrusted all the baptized with stewardship of the one thing needful: the Gospel of Jesus Christ. No one member of any congregation is more important than another when it comes to this stewardship.

Each of us in the body of Christ has a role to play, a part to sing, or make up a piece of the beautiful Grace Lutheran Church and her 158-year-old ministry. The standard for that role is faithfulness. We do not have the same function, but we have the same Jesus! As we live our days entrusted to us by the Holy Spirit, the work of the Lord continues.

Peace in Christ, Pastor Miller

Lutheran Women in Mission

Sunday

Over 80 years of History!

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) was established in 1942 as the official women's auxiliary of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

Beginning with the launch of our new logo in 2023, we have shifted toward the use of the descriptive phrase Lutheran Women in Mission. This phrase clearly states who we are and what we do.

Lutheran Women in Mission: As Lutheran Women in Mission, we joyfully proclaim Christ, support missions, and equip women to honor God by serving others. On Lutheran Women in Mission Sunday we remember our past and look to the future.

Mites, Missions, and Mustard Seeds:

Based on the biblical account of the widow's mite (Luke 21:1–4), the Mite Box is intended for regular contributions of "mites" — offerings above and beyond the support given to congregations and the LCMS. The Mite Box box is more than just a symbol of God's provision — it's a reminder that your offerings and prayers bring the love and hope of Jesus to those in need. You can also donate online at lwml.org/donate-online to make giving easy!

Making an impact at home and abroad! As Lutheran Women in Mission, we know it's an honor to serve God by serving others. We serve local organizations with Gifts from the Heart, Mission Service Activities, and Special Offerings. And through a careful selection process, we choose mission grant recipients from around the world each biennium. Starting with one grant of $15,000 our mission grant goal continues to grow each biennium. In 2025, a Mission Goal of $2,622,270 was approved to fund 33 grants.

The seed of the mustard plant is among the smallest of seeds, yet from this small seed grows a large bush. Jesus used the analogy of a mustard seed to show how something small and seemingly insignificant can have a powerful impact. Like the analogy, our Mustard Seed Daily Devotions are short devotions, small seeds of faith, that are great for your spiritual growth, and are easy to sow by sharing with friends.

Sierra Leone West Africa - Mende & Themne

September
2025

In my last newsletter, I promised to introduce you to an incredible person, the retired General Secretary of the Bible Society of Sierra Leone, Mrs. Christiana Jones. Below you can find a link and QR code for the full interview. In missions and Bible translation, we work with a lot of people from all over world, everyone with their own story, path to Bible Translation, and impact on the work.

Mrs. Christiana Jones, of the Krio tribe, was born in the village of Hastings in Sierra Leone. She was the oldest child, grandchild, and great-grandchild of her generation in her family. As the eldest in her family, there was a lot of pressure on her to do well in school and succeed. And while school did not come easy for her, she worked very hard and became a very good student. Even though there was a lot of pressure on her as the eldest, she loved to run around, play soccer, and climb trees, while also loving to cook. She was very passionate about the things of God and even began reading the King James Version by the age of seven. While she was still a university student she began her teaching career locally and earned her diploma (similar to an associates degree), bachelors, and a Masters degree. She studied hospitality, education, and educational administration. Early in her tertiary schooling, she married an Anglican priest. While she wanted to focus on school and wait to marry, he promised he would support her education goals, and he kept that promise. Together they had two sons, Bernard and Leslie (Noel), who have both completed their bachelors degrees as well.

As the General Secretary of the Bible Society of Sierra Leone, Mrs. Jones helped facilitate making sure all translation teams had a designated office for the work, acquired training for translators, and made sure translators had the equipment to do their work well. Additionally, she ushered in the Sierra Leone Sign Language translation project with support from Seed Company, which will allow the deaf community of Sierra Leone to access Bible stories in their language. And with the support of the local membership of the Bible Society, 90 % of the third floor of the head office was remodeled to accommodate 300 people with an additional resource center.

She has been a great leader and mentor for many of us and a wonderful example of a woman in leadership who has great strength, humility, desire to always be learning, and concern for those around her. For me personally, she has been an inspiration and has always been protective of me like a daughter, while encouraging me in my education and finding my voice. We are all grateful to Mrs. Jones for her sacrificial work at Bible Society; her efforts have made a big impact on the organization and the work.

Now that she is retired, she will continue and increase her involvement in church activities and a community organization she has established. Her organization will help teach young girls practical skills they can use to support themselves in addition to whatever career or family life they aspire to. While she may be retired, but she is not done working for her community or the kingdom of God.

Mende Bible Translation Project (with Deuterocanonical Books) Progress

Portion	Drafting	Team Checking	External Review	Consultant Checked
Old Testament	39/39	39/39	39/39	24/39
Deuterocanonical Books	12/12	12/12	12/12	0/12
New Testament	27/27	6/27	5/27	1/27

Themne Bible Translation Project Progress

Portion	Drafting	Team Checking	External Review	Consultant Checked
Old Testament	39/39	39/39	39/39	4/39
New Testament	20/27	1/27	1/27	0/27

Note: The Deuterocanon (which means 'second canon') includes the books accepted into the Roman Catholic Church inspired canon. While Lutherans and other protestants do not hold them as inspired, they are considered beneficial like reading other theological or religious publications, and they give us a view into the context between the Old and New Testament. The wisdom books are quite beautiful, and the stories are very interesting. Have you read any? What is your favorite?

Prayer Requests

- Praise God that the Mende and Themne translations are moving forward.
- Pray that I can use all that I'm learning as a translation advisor.
- Praise God that I was able to connect with other missionaries and hear inspirational presentations at the Concordia Mission Institute in Missouri this past July.
- Praise God for your continued faithful prayers and support!
